Re: Dynamic Star, LLC v. Dr. Judith Zackson, 24-cv-4649

Dear Judge Kaplan:

This firm represents Dr. Judith Zackson. I write jointly with counsel for Dynamic Star, LLC, to provide a status report to the Court.

Since the hearing before Your Honor on July 17, 2024, the parties have discussed a potential resolution for this dispute. They have exchanged multiple proposals, but were unable to come to an agreement.

In particular, the Plaintiff is not willing to discontinue the action entirely and with prejudice, without the opportunity to reopen the case before You should it turn out that Defendant's representations and disclosures in the stipulated Order of Permanent Injunction are untrue. The Defendant, in turn, seeks a final resolution of the Plaintiff's claims with prejudice, although she understands that any false representations or disclosures in a stipulated Order of Permanent Injunction may subject her to being held in contempt.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Newman
